

A School of Fish and a Pairing of Flip Flops to Descend on Galveston Conference

OK, so you've heard all about the flamingos, the Manni Parade, Swingin' on a Star, and Wearable Weird! TAEA and the Krewe at Moody Gardens are excited to announce the next wave of fashion and fun, artistically sculpted & painted Fish and Flip Flops, or Fish~Flops, to greet conference-goers in Galveston. TAEA members are challenged to create and/or paint their own Fish~Flop Masterpieces to be displayed at the conference and auctioned off for the TAEA Scholarship Fund in a silent auction during the conference. Here's how to participate! Pre-Register your Fish~Flops with Joey Doyle at jdoyle@aldine.k12.tx.us and let him know if you plan to create a one-of-a-kind pair of Flip~Flops or a unique [gold] fish sculpture. Individual artists, art clubs, art teachers, National Art Honor Societies, vendors, everyone is invited to participate. Next, Design & decorate your Fish~Flop in the style of a famous artist, period of art, or tropical theme. Since the first silent auction in 2004 we have seen every medium used; from metal to glass, polymer to stone, and ceramic to feathers. Bring (do not mail or ship) your Fish~Flop to Galveston when you come for conference. We will have a Staging Area for them when you arrive. Let's turn this island paradise into, well, an Island Paradise!

Fish~Flops are this Year's Hook for the Scholarship Fund
