

presents

Artist

MAGDA SAYEG

Magda Sayeg is a street artist that knits and crochets yarn with contrasting colors and pattern as a Yarn Bombing Pioneer. She has become recognized as an artist in the broader community and the art world with commissioned exhibitions, hosting workshops and teaching classes. Her textile creations cover everyday objects such as cars, buses, street poles, and tree trunks. She loves collaborating with other artists to create meaningful projects.

GENERAL SESSION:

Saturday, November 23, 2013

9:00-11:00am

Trinity Ballroom

INSIDE THE STUDIO:

Transforming Everyday Objects with Textiles

Saturday, November 23, 2013

1:00-2:45pm

Coronado A

