2. Joseph F. Doyle III Spirit of VASE Scholarship – VASE was a special focus for Joey's work in art education. Many of you have expressed a desire to honor Joey. At this time, you are invited to contribute to the Joseph F. Doyle III Spirit of VASE Scholarship Fund. Joey believed in VASE and giving back all he could to the students who participate. Funds collected will be used to make a scholarship award to a deserving student at State VASE 2015. You may go to taea.org and find out how to give to this special scholarship.
3. Honoring Joey – Many colleagues are sharing ideas on how best to honor Joey Doyle at our upcoming annual conference. Your ideas are welcome and appreciated. Please feel free to share your thoughts with me personally at tim.lowke@taea.org. All ideas will be discussed with the Executive Board and considered carefully.

Going forth: I want to thank all those who have reached out to each other and Joey's family during this time of sudden shock and grief. Joey was a big part of the TAEA community and each of us has a connection to him and his work amongst us for art education in Texas. One thing I have come to realize, while this state is large, our art education community is very connected with each other. Thank you on behalf of the TAEA Leadership and the Doyle Family.

Sincerely,
