

TAEA 2017 Conference News

The Galveston Conference Chairs are pleased to share that planning is well under way for our November 2-4, 2017 Fall Conference: Dia de los Artes: Awakening Your Creative Spirit! We would like to remind everyone that since we will be sharing the weekend in Galveston with hundreds of thousands of “Bikers” it is recommended that you reserve rooms NOW. Moody Gardens reservation information here:

<http://www.taea.org/TAEA/Docs/2017/TAEA-Conference-2017-Hotel-Reservations.pdf>

There will be Day of the Dead themed activities, celebrations and learning opportunities in store for attendees which include: A Thursday Evening “Demo-rama”, Artisans Mercado and Friday evening Fiesta in the Pyramids, Local Artists Super Session, “Calacas, Calavers and Crustaceans Silent Auction”, Communal altar and a dynamite keynote speaker/artist!

Watch for future information email blasts and check the TAEA website for updates.

Some of the 2017 Conference Committee