I. TAEA Mission Statement

The purpose of TAEA is to promote quality visual arts education in Texas by promoting visual arts education as an integral part of the State of Texas' curriculum. This support will be through professional development of knowledge and skills, representation of the arts educators of Texas, service and leadership opportunities, and research and development of policies and decisions relative to practices and directions in visual arts education. Concurrent purposes are to sustain and advance professional development and to encourage and promote the advancement of knowledge and skills in the art field.

TAEA Goals

- ☐ Provide and support quality art instruction based on the TEKS and National Standards
- ☐ Encourage strong art education programs in school districts
- ☐ Provide assistance and support for new art teachers
- ☐ Provide events for students that allow for education and recognition
- ☐ Provide resources for schools that serve as models in art education
- ☐ Support art education in city and state government
- ☐ Utilize the expertise of Retired Art Educators and Fellows
- ☐ Seek partnerships and grants

TAEA Policy on Policies

All proposed policies or proposed changes to existing policies in all TAEA organizations and events must be approved by the Executive Board.

Belief Statements

Preface

To promote quality visual arts education in Texas by promoting visual arts education as an integral part of the curriculum through professional development of knowledge and skills, representation of the art educators of Texas, service and leadership opportunities, and research and development of policies and decisions relative to practices and directions in visual arts education; to sustain and advance professional development; to encourage and promote the advancement of knowledge and skills.

The Texas Art Education Association believes:

- ☐ The visual arts are essential at all levels of human development.
- ☐ The visual arts are sensitive to learning styles and multiple intelligences: all students are capable.
- ☐ The visual arts develop critical and creative thinkers.
- ☐ Visual literacy and self-expression in the visual arts are vital forms of communication in our global society.
- ☐ Quality visual arts education requires instruction by professional certified art educators.
- ☐ Continuous professional development is necessary for quality teaching.
- ☐ Active support of research and development in visual arts education is essential.
- ☐ Promotion and implementation of quality visual arts education through communication with students, parents, school administrators and community leaders.

Categories of Belief Statements:

We Believe...

I. Category: Students

Understanding of what the category is

The art educator members of TAEA serve a diverse population of learners that is inclusive of all ages in schools, universities, museums and other community settings.

Students of the visual arts include the full range of age levels that is a continuum from early childhood, throughout their education, and continuing into adulthood.

One statement for that category which articulates TAEA's beliefs in this category.

All students deserve a comprehensive visual art education taught by highly-qualified art educators.

Belief Statements in this Category:

A. Every student deserves a quality visual art education. (Adopted November 2011)

When expertly taught by visual art educators, and authentically assessed, the visual arts curriculum will be part of a high quality, effective and balanced education of all students.

TAEA Tools

- * A Principal's Guide to Hiring a Quality Visual Art Specialist: Ten Questions to Ask Every Prospective Art Teacher
- * Adapting the Visual Arts Curriculum for Special Needs Learners
- * Meeting a Higher Standard: Student Examples of Quality Art (Gold Seal VASE images, Jr. VASE, TEAM examples –TAEA.org)

B. All children should be afforded the opportunity to choose art as a course of study. (Considered November 2013 / Adopted January 2014)

There should be an informed relationship between the art educator, counselors, and administrators to insure counselors and administrators provide and encourage art as a student course selection at all levels. Schedules should include art and be streamlined for efficiency without courses interfering with art as a choice. Career and Technology Education (CTE) courses and/or Technology Application courses should not be offered or encouraged as a substitute for an art course. All Texas children should have visual art at the elementary level.

TAEA Tools

- * Counselor and Administrator descriptors of all art courses offered
- * Administrator handbook for the Art TEKS in the schools
- * Art educators meeting with counselors and administrators at the campus level

We Believe...

II. Category: Art Educators

Understanding of what the category is

TAEA members form a professional community that advances the field of visual art education by engaging in issues of curriculum, instruction, and assessment in and through the visual arts.

Professional visual art educators have the knowledge, skills and commitment to teaching the visual arts to students of all ages. Visual art educators, as members of the broader community of educators, have insight into and understanding of human development. Art educators come from diverse populations, viewpoints, and professional settings, including schools, museums, universities and community-based organizations.

One statement for that category which articulates TAEA's beliefs in this category.

Art educators believe that the visual arts are vital to the comprehensive education of all students.

Belief Statements in this Category:

A. Every art educator deserves to receive quality in-service which contributes to continued growth throughout their career. (Adopted November 2011)

Every art educator needs to be supported by their campus and school district with current proven pedagogy based on the latest research leading to best practices in the classroom.

TAEA Tools to Support What We Believe

- * TAEA Annual Conference
- * Local and regional conferences
- * Distance learning through online courses
- * Online access through the TAEA website

B. TAEA supports a visual arts education committed to supporting the art educator in their classroom. (Considered November 2013 / Adopted January 2014)

Continuous professional development is necessary for quality teaching and is the primary means of support for the art educator in the classroom. Active support of research and development in visual arts education is essential for maintenance of the highest instructional strategies.

TAEA Tools to Support What We Believe

- * TAEA Annual Conference with professional development
- * Local and regional conferences with professional development
- * Distance learning through online courses for professional development
- * Online access through the TAEA website for professional development

C. It is highly recommended that certified art educators have studio art experience in addition to teacher preparation experience. (Considered November 2013 / Adopted January 2014)

For the highest quality art education for Texas students, we believe that art instructors should have participated in college studio art courses as well as taken art education courses.

TAEA Tools to Support What We Believe

- * TAEA/Fine Arts lobby for TEA to add minimal course requirements for certification along with passing the test
- * Encourage administrators to hire those with studio art college experience as well as certification
- * Professional development for certified art educators already hired but without studio art experience

III. Category: Relationships

Understanding of what the category is

Internal Relationships

TAEA members serve in a variety of capacities including visual art teachers, curriculum specialists, administrators, professors, students, art museum educators, artists, and researchers. TAEA's structure includes individual state associations that enable members to have a connection with their colleagues at the district, state, region, division, as well as at the national level.

External Relationships

TAEA provides leadership for both state associations and other groups as the primary voice and advocate for visual art education. TAEA cultivates and values its relationships with a variety of associations and organizations, including the media, which have the potential to share TAEA's interest in the advancement of arts education. These organizations include other entities, both nonprofit and for profit, that advocate for the arts in the schools. They have shared values with TAEA members and the potential to collaborate with TAEA, including the capacity to provide additional services and resources to its members.

One statement for that category which articulates TAEA's beliefs in this category.

TAEA is empowered by developing its current and potential relationships, which further the association's leadership role in service to its members and their students.

Belief Statements in this Category:

A. Every art educator deserves the opportunity to network with a community of other art educators. (Adopted November 2011)

Connections with other art educators provide teachers with support and the opportunities for growth through sharing of ideas, encouragement, challenge, accountability and mentorship.

TAEA Tools to Support What We Believe

- * TAEA Annual Conference
- * Local and regional conferences
- * Extensive contact databases
- * Online access through the TAEA website

B. There should be collaboration between art educators at all levels. (Considered November 2013 / Adopted January 2014)

TAEA believes there should be a program of visits between art educators: middle school to elementary and high school to middle school. There should also be meetings for vertical planning and collaborative art shows between all levels of art educators.

TAEA Tools to Support What We Believe

- * Administrative professional development for developing vertical planning at the district level
- * TAEA yearly conference

C. A Fine Arts team should collaborate at the district and campus level to advocate for the arts. (Considered November 2013 / Adopted January 2014)

The team should:

1. Include a representative from every fine arts parent group and meet monthly to advocate for arts in the school,
2. Go to school board meetings to testify and support the fine arts with the understanding that the arts are fundamental to the education of the whole child.

TAEA Tools to Support What We Believe

- * Administrative professional development for developing vertical planning at the district level
- * TAEA yearly conference
- * Art education research

IV. Category: Curriculum

Understanding of what the category is

All students receive a high quality, comprehensive, sequential visual art program of study, pre-school through higher education, recognizing that effective art curriculum is a core component of 21st century education. A strong visual arts curriculum is designed to:

- ☐ Provide students with skills and knowledge in the visual arts in accordance with rigorous national, state, and local standards.
- ☐ Provide opportunities for students to experience a wide variety of media, including traditional materials and new technologies as means of human expression.
- ☐ Reflect knowledge of the historical timeline, aesthetics, criticism and cultural diversity, incorporating these elements within authentic assessment.
- ☐ Be complemented with access to art museums and community education programs.

One statement for that category which articulates TAEA's beliefs in this category.

When expertly taught by visual art educators, and authentically assessed, the visual arts curriculum will be part of a high quality, effective and balanced education of all students.

Belief Statements in this Category:

A. At the Higher Education level, studio art classes should be allotted the number of hours needed to master the criteria for the course. (Considered November 2013 / Adopted January 2014)

Higher Education studio hours should not be streamlined to minimize time spent in school, but rather maintain enough time in class (and hours earned) to master the criteria for the course. The focus should be on strategic mastery rather than simply fulfilling the least amount of time in a class.

TAEA Tools to Support What We Believe

- * TAEA Annual Conference with Workshops for Higher Education
- * Higher Education Division working together to strategically make change
- * Art Education Research

B. Student sequencing of art classes needs to follow prerequisite requirements.
(Considered November 2013 / Adopted January 2014)

The driving force behind student schedules should be scaffolding of art processes, skills, and creative expression. Art students learn at a progressive level. No art class stands alone without foundations from other classes taken sequentially.

TAEA Tools to Support What We Believe

- * TEA TEKS guidelines for class prerequisites
- * Art Education Research

C. Art is the sum of all content areas. (Considered November 2013 / Adopted January 2014)

TAEA believes that all content areas can be found within the scope of art: language, math, science, social sciences, and technology. Art should be the model for higher level pedagogies. Creativity is the highest level and higher level instruction is seen on a daily basis in all levels of art classrooms. Evidence can be produced in the art classroom that proves creative learning is taking place.

TAEA Tools to Support What We Believe

- * Examples of Bloom's taxonomy
- * Art Education Research
- * Examples of other content areas within art

V. Category: Instruction

Understanding of what the category is

Characteristics

The craft of teaching of art requires sensitivity to quality and maintaining rigorous standards for self and students. Quality art instruction uses a variety of teaching methodologies, which incorporate reflective practice and assessment. Quality art instruction differentiates among student needs, provides choices for students in creative thinking and problem solving, and supports improvisation.

Art educators are responsive to students, include students in planning their learning, and encourage collaboration to develop a community of learners.

Content

Quality art instruction requires a varied and deep understanding of the visual arts, sets a high standard of excellence and demands planning. Art educators engage all students in learning that promotes the arts to enrich their lives using examples reflective of the real world and its diversity.

Quality art instruction inspires students to understand art making, the world of objects, the impact of visual images, and performances that incorporate the visual arts. Art educators are aware of the relationship between the students and the specific art making materials they are using to create work.

Learning Environments

Quality art instruction takes place in a variety of places, including classrooms, museums, and community settings. Learning environments dedicated to the arts are properly equipped and provide access to a variety of media and technologies. It is important that these environments create a stable, safe, and equitable space that values the arts and supports the exploration of new ideas, creativity, and innovation. Quality art instruction allocates equitable time to support a standard of excellence and achievement for all student learners.

One statement for that category which articulates TAEA's beliefs in this category.

Quality visual art instruction is vital to the development of individuals, communities, and society through creative expression and critical processes.

Belief Statements in this Category:

A. Every student deserves a visual art education that is supported with sufficient resources, facilities, and certified instructors. (Adopted November 2011)

Quality visual art instruction is vital to the development of individuals, communities, and society through creative expression and critical processes. Visual arts programs must be adequately supported.

TAEA Tools

- * Facilities Recommendations for the Art Classroom
- * Sample Budgets for the Art Classroom
- * Starting a New Art Program: Recommended Supplies and Equipment
- * The Art Teacher's Teaching E-Portfolio: A Template for Assessment

B. Every art student deserves a safe and productive learning environment with the same pupil/teacher ratio as all other foundation classrooms. (Considered November 2013 / Adopted January 2014)

Art class size should follow recommended standards for safety and established norms that ensure successful mastery of the content area.

TAEA Tools

- * Educational research concerning class size and student success
- * Norms for student/teacher ratio based on level

C. TAEA proposes a realistic sustainable art budget employing a standardized per pupil ratio in order to provide adequate fine arts resources within campus budgets. (Considered November 2013 / Adopted January 2014)

TAEA believes art education is more than an elective. It is a creative, cultural, instructional program. Art teachers should be provided with adequate funding to support and sustain viable art programs.

TAEA Tools

- * Sample Budgets for the Art Classroom
- * Starting a New Art Program: Recommended Supplies and Equipment

D. Art educators should be provided with adequate facilities and supplies to maximize student success. (Considered November 2013 / Adopted January 2014)

Room size is an important consideration when determining maximum class enrollment. There should be ideal facility norms that school districts follow when setting up art classrooms. There should be adequate space considering the student/teacher ratio. This is essential for a productive learning environment. There should be adequate storage space, lighting should be at a high level and adequate water access is essential.

TAEA Tools

- * TEA handbook for school construction and building codes
- * TEKS Administrator handbook with facility guide
- * TAEA annual conference with Administrator professional development

VI. Category: Assessment

Understanding of what the category is

Assessment measures student learning in the visual arts and informs best practices in art education. Quality assessment is critical to effective instruction and comprehensive delivery of the visual arts curriculum. Authentic assessment in the visual arts can take many forms (formative, summative, program assessment, portfolio assessment, peer assessment, quality scale or 'rubric', self-assessment).

One statement for that category which articulates TAEA's beliefs in this category.

TAEA believes that a variety of authentic assessments which are developmentally appropriate for all learners are vital to best practices in art education.

Belief Statements in this Category:

A. Every student deserves to be assessed using assessment tools, which measure student growth and performance. (Adopted November 2011)

A variety of authentic assessments, which are developmentally appropriate for all learners are vital to best practices in art education.

TAEA Tools

- * Position Statement on 21st Century Skills and Visual Arts Education
- * Sample Rubrics for the Art Classroom Pre-K through 12
- * The VASE Student Intent Form/VASE Juror Rating Form

B. Student assessment process should be supported according to established standards. (Considered November 2013 / Adopted January 2014)

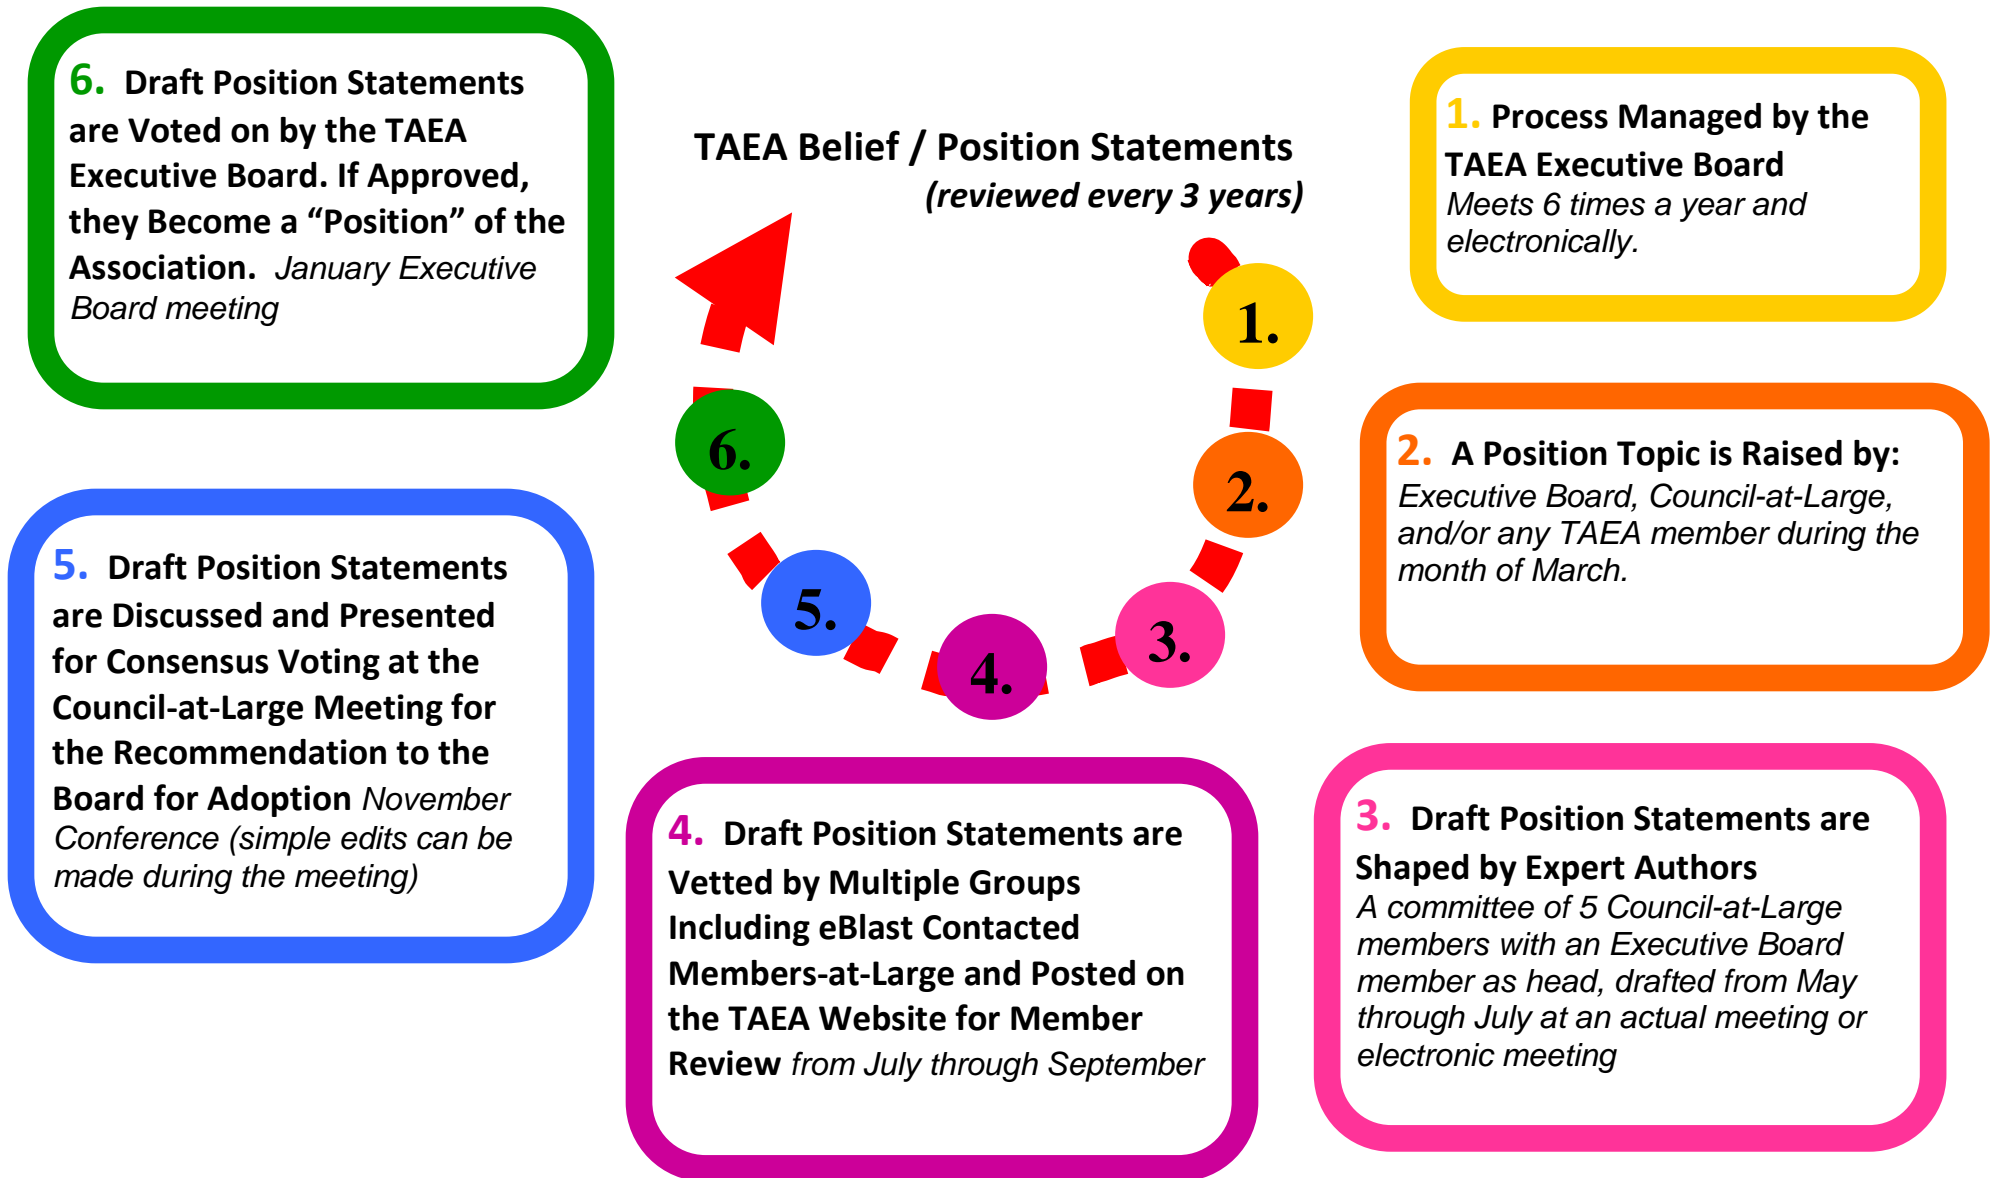

TAEA believes summative assessment in art should be using the following instruments: authentic assessment, portfolio, student-centered self-assessment, product-based assessment, production and process assessment, written and verbal critique.

TAEA Tools

- * TEKS assessment standards
- * Position Statement on 21st Century Skills and Visual Arts Education
- * Sample Rubrics for the Art Classroom Pre-K through 12
- * The VASE Student Intent Form/VASE Juror Rating Form
- * Critique methods
- * Portfolio standards & use of e-Portfolios

(Belief Statements originally adopted by TAEA in 2010: to be reviewed every 3 years, and revised when necessary. Reviewed with no revisions at Spring CAL 2018)

TAEA Forward - The 2015-2020 Strategic Plan

The purpose of the Strategic Plan is to chart the direction of TAEA to meet the challenges of the future. The Council-at-Large has identified three audiences who will benefit from the actions of the organization – Members, Students, and Professional Community. Under each group are listed areas of concentration, each having specific goals.

I. Members

- Communication
Goal: Provide open, effective, and interactive communication.
- Membership
Goal: Develop a campaign to increase membership and broaden the membership base.
- Professional Development
Goal: Provide opportunities for members to train for 21st Century Skills.
- Leadership
Goal: Investigate and create a plan to increase leadership opportunities for all members.
- Organizational Structure
Goal: Examine structural components of TAEA with regard to relevance, complexity, and financial ramifications.

II. Students

- Programs and Competitions
Goal: Create a plan to increase opportunities for students to enter programs and standards-based competitions designed to promote student growth.

III. Professional Community

- Advocacy
Goal: Design an advocacy program to assist teachers in promoting their program.
- Research & Knowledge
Goal: Collaborate and develop trends and emerging ideas in art education.
- Community-Based Programs
Goal: Expand community-based programs to meet the needs of students and members.

II. History

History of TAEA

The oldest records available show that art teachers have met as an Art Section of the Texas State Teachers Association since 1919. Officers for the Art Section included a chairman, vice-chairman, and secretary. The first Chairman on record was Miss Margaret Culbertson of Dallas.

Programs in those early years included a number of outstanding speakers such as Miss Jessie Todd, Director of Art, University of Chicago; Dr. A.J. Stoddard, Superintendent of schools, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania; Mr. C. Valentine Kirby, Director of Drawing for the State of Pennsylvania; Maholy-Nagy, School of Design, Chicago; and Ray Faulkner, Department of Art, Teachers College, Columbia University. The program of that first meeting held in Houston in November 1919 was as follows:

Opening remarks by Chairman, Miss Margaret Culbertson, Dallas Applied Art in Elementary Schools, Miss Hattie Willing, Galveston, The Cultural Value of Fine Arts, Miss Mattie Lacy, C.I.A., Denton, Art in Industry, N.S. Hudson, Department of Education, Austin, Art in High School, Miss Nellie D. Clements, Dallas, Recent Development in Art Education, Miss Gladys Anderson, San Antonio, General Discussion, Election of Officers.

Minutes of the November 25, 1927, Art Section meeting in Houston reveal that it was voted to charge dues of $1.00 and also voted that the duties of Treasurer would be added to that of Secretary. The dues remained $1.00 for 27 years or until 1954 when raised to $1.50. A subsequent raise at some indeterminate date made it $2.00; another in 1961 made it $3.00. Dues continued to be raised. They rose to $5.00 in 1964, to $10.00 in 1974, and $35.00 in 1975 when Texas became a unified State. Then, a person joining TAEA had to also be a member of NAEA. In 2000, TAEA elected to make membership to NAEA optional. Dues rose again in 2008 to $45.00 and in 2015 to $55.00.

The Art Section continued to meet and the exact date this group organized that Associated Art Instructors of Texas is not known. It was probably in the late thirties. When organized, the stated purpose of AAIT was three-fold:

1. To coordinate the art instruction of the schools of the State of Texas and to develop a greater interest and love of art in the pupil as a consumer and producer so that art will become a vital part of his daily living.
2. To define and encourage studies and research related to art education.
3. To act as a spokesman for art in total education and to promote a coordinate program of public relations.

From the time of its organization, the Association retained the name Associated Art Instructors of Texas (AAIT) until it was changed in 1950 to the Texas Art Educators Association. In 1966 the present name was adopted: Texas Art Education Association.

In the September 1927 issue of the Texas Outlook, art supervisors and others interested in promoting art in Texas Expressed their appreciation to the editor of the Outlook for giving the art educators an art page in each issue. In reference to this art page is found the following: J.L. Long, often referred to as the "Father of Art" in Texas, has offered $25 for an accepted illustrated title for the art page. The Art Page or Art Section, as both names were used, continued to be a regular part of each issue for ten years or until 1937. Mrs. Runnels, art supervisor in Fort Worth Public Schools, was editor for the entire time. However, during these ten years she became Mrs. Lucy Runnels Wright and her address changed from Fort Worth to Waco to Taylor.

To celebrate the Texas Centennial, a series of articles were written by the editor on Texas artists. Throughout the ten years the Art Section appeared in the Outlook, various members were urged to submit articles and photographs. In addition to articles by members, there appeared articles reprinted from art magazines and speeches given at the art section meetings.

The Art Teacher was being published in 1942 as the official publication of the Associated Art Instructors of Texas. The exact date of its first edition is not known. Newsletters were published by the presidents as needed. When The Art Teacher became Texas Trends is also unknown, but it was possible in the late forties as a 1951 issue bears the title Texas Trends.

The magazine gained national recognition when Suella Lacy was editor. She served two terms of office. During her terms as editor she served on a national committee for state publications and appeared on panels discussing state publications at NAEA conference. For many years two issues of Trends were published each year. In 1967 a decision was made to print only one issue each year on a trial basis and several issues of newsletters. This practice has been continued to date.

During the World War II years, the organization did not meet; neither did Texas State Teachers Association (TSTA). When TSTA resumed its meeting on November 29, 1946, in Houston, Grace Smith called a meeting of all art teachers for the purpose of recognizing the AAIT. At the meeting, Ivan Johnson was elected President and a resolution was passed emphasizing that the organization was to be a democratic one with equal participation between classroom art teachers and those of college level. It was also decided that the official publication The Texas Art Teacher would be published again in February.

From 1919 until 1966 officers assumed duties in November at the Art Section meeting of the TSTA convention. Since 1966 the Constitution has been changed several times and also the time officers assume office. They now assume duties on immediately following the conference. A constitutional change in 1969 provided that officers be elected by mail with two names for each office on the ballot. New offices were also created. The Vice President became the President-elect.

TAEA has steadily grown with over 4000 members strong in summer of 2018. Growth was impacted significantly with the implementation of Visual Art Scholastic Event (VASE). Advocacy has become a huge focus in the last few years. Our first booth at Texas Association of School Administrators/Texas Association of School Boards (TASB/TASA) was set up September 2012 and has become another venue for celebrating student art and advocating for art programs in Texas schools. Be Visual campaign took off in 2012 with Big Art Day to follow in 2013. Texas Art Education Foundation (TAEF) was presented in 2013 but wasn't fully operational until 2017. The Leadership Initiative was launched in the summer of 2014 to help grow leaders within the organization. In 2016, discussion began for Texas Art Education Outreach (TEAO) and the program was launched in 2018 at a Senior Symposium held at the Blinn Campus in Brenham, TX.

For the 2019 TAEA Conference in Galveston, we celebrated 100 years of art education in Texas.

Descriptor & Specifications

TAEA Executive Board

The TAEA Executive Board shall consist of seven (7) members and five (5) ex-officio members. Two (2) members have automatic positions – TAEA President-elect becomes TAEA President and President becomes Past President. All officers are required to attend the five (5) Executive Board meetings per year as voting members. They meet twice annually at the Annual Fall Conference and during the Spring YAM weekend. The other three are usually held in January, Summer, and Fall. The dates and locations of these three meetings will be determined by the President with the approval of the officers. The ex-officio (non-voting) members are required to attend any meeting requested by the President.

Any TAEA member who holds an elected position can be dismissed if and only if a majority of the Board determines that he/she:

- is causing harm to TAEA and its membership
- fails to fulfill his/her duties as outlined in the P&P to the point where it hinders the Board from its purpose in serving TAEA and /or disrupts the organizational function of TAEA
- fails to attend two of the scheduled meetings for that position

Procedure:

1. The grievance is brought to the attention of the Executive Director who determines if the behavior and/or situation are grounds for immediate removal or if the behavior and/or situation can be corrected.
2. The Executive Director will discuss the matter at hand with the elected official in question to give the elected official an opportunity to correct the behavior and/or situation. In some cases, the Executive Director may choose to bring the President and President-elect into the meeting with the elected official.
3. If the behavior and/or situation is not rectified to the satisfaction of the Executive Director with council from the President and President-elect, the elected official in question and evidence of the grievance is brought before the board with the recommendation that the elected official be removed from office.
4. If the evidence warrants immediate removal, the elected official in question along with the grievance and evidence will be brought before the board with the recommendation that the elected official be removed from office.

Any TAEA member who holds an appointed position regardless of whether or not there is monetary remuneration involved can be replaced at any time at the discretion of the President.

Attendance:

Any elected official who has been absent from two consecutive regular meetings of the Executive Board, Executive Council, and/or the Council-at-Large during a single term shall automatically vacate their seat on the Executive Board, Executive Council, and/or Council-at-Large and the vacancy shall be filled by presidential appointment. However, the Executive Board shall consider each absence as a separate circumstance and may expressly waive such absence by affirmative vote of a majority of voting members present.

TAEA Executive Council Highlights

The TAEA Executive Council shall consist of 25 Positions/Members. Two (2) members have automatic positions – Vice President-elect Youth Art Month becomes Vice President Youth Art Month and Vice President-elect Membership becomes Vice President Membership. The elected and appointed Chairs also serve on this council along with all members of the Executive Board. The Executive Council meets at the discretion of the President with no set meeting times.

TAEA Council-at-Large

The Council-at-Large is responsible to the President. It consists of the following voting members: all members of the Executive Board, all members of the Executive Council, the Representatives from the twenty regions (20), two (2) delegates from the local art associations around the state, chairs of all Standing and Ad Hoc Committees. Non-voting members of the Council-at-Large are the Ex-Officio appointees, specified non-voting committee chairs (see organizational chart above), and the Office Manager. The primary purpose of the Council-at-Large is to conduct and vote upon the business of TAEA. They meet twice annually at the Annual Fall Conference and during the Spring YAM weekend. Council-at-Large business may also be conducted electronically at other than the twice-annual meetings. For voting and business transactions to be valid, a quorum must be present (whether at physical meetings or electronically) and a quorum is $\frac{1}{4}$ (a quarter) of the Council-at-Large. Council-at-Large meetings are always open to the full TAEA membership to observe and share opinions on important issues.

The Council-at-Large is the last voting body in the line of the scope of the TAEA organization; except in the case of full membership vote on TAEA Constitution amendments and TAEA officer elections.

The Council-at-Large is required to vote on the following TAEA items. This is not an exhaustive list and may be modified to include other items. The TAEA President and/or Executive Board might also ask the Council-at-Large to vote as an indicator of acceptance or opinion on any matter or policy. The List:

1. TAEA Constitutional Amendments Executive Board presents possible amendments along with rationale for the amendment either electronically or at one of the 2 CAL meetings. CAL votes for approval either electronically or at one of the 2 CAL meetings. The TAEA membership then votes on the amendment electronically.
2. TAEA Budget Presented to CAL electronically in June for approval by August 1. The reason for this approval timeline is the end of the TAEA fiscal year is July 31.
3. VASE Rules & Policies Approval must be prior to September 1 when rules must be posted so teachers and students know the rules and guidelines for artwork planning. The VASE Blue Ribbon Board meets the second Wednesday and Thursday in July and develops the rule & policy changes for the next VASE year. They are presented to the TAEA Executive Board – along with rationale for the revisions – for review and approval electronically by the end of July. They are presented to the TAEA Council-at-Large – along with rationale for the revisions – for review and approval electronically by mid-August.

Possible letter content:

Dear Administrator,

I would like to congratulate you for having an excellent art educator on your staff. Officer Name has recently been elected to serve as the Texas Art Education Association's Office for the 2012-2013 term. TAEA is (number of members) members strong statewide and Officer Name has shared his/her amazing leadership abilities and his/her outstanding educational skills with the organization and its members. This is evident in his/her election to a state office. We are proud to welcome him/her as an officer and look forward to his/her years of service.

The goal of TAEA is to promote quality visual arts education in Texas. This goal can be achieved by promoting visual arts education as an integral part of educational curriculum, providing professional development in both knowledge and skills, encouraging and promoting the advancement of knowledge and skills, serving as a voice for the art educators of Texas, providing members with service and leadership opportunities, and researching and developing policies and decisions relative to practices and directions in visual arts education. Officer Name is an excellent choice to help TAEA achieve these exemplary goals.

Congratulations again. Please pass this congratulation on to any entity within your organization that honors achievement.

TAEA will provide one half of a hotel room per night for the January, March, June/July, September required meetings. Conference (travel/hotel) expenses are only reimbursed for one night.
- Executive Council/Regional Representatives:
TAEA will provide one half of a hotel room per night for the required March meeting. TAEA will provide one half of a hotel room for Wednesday night only for the required Conference CAL meeting.
Conference (travel/hotel) expenses are not reimbursed.

Meals:

The only meal that might be provided by TAEA will be a noon meal during an all day meeting – this by the discretion of the President.

Transportation:

TAEA will provide travel expenses for the Executive Board members by submitting gasoline receipts for costs during the trip and then a receipt showing the measurement immediately at the conclusion of the trip. Airline fares are only paid for President, President-elect, and Past President for NAEA and Western Division Conferences (attendance the 2nd year). All other travel expenses are at the cost of the board or council member unless money has been budgeted for said expenses.

VIII. TAEA Function Highlights

STAR Publication: Published 4 times a year online and supervised by the Executive Director.

TRENDS Publication: Published yearly as a printed publication and supervised by the TRENDS Editor (an appointed position) and the Executive Director.

Annual Awards Descriptions:

Texas Art Educator of the Year:

Awarded to one TAEA member who has significantly contributed to the association and to art education on the state, local and/or national levels.

Division Outstanding Art Educator Awards:

Awarded to one TAEA member from each division (Elementary, Middle School/Junior High, High School/Senior High, Higher Education, Student, Museum Education, Supervision /Administration) who has significantly contributed to the association and to art education on the state, local and/or national levels. Nominee must currently be employed in the appropriate division and must have worked at the level for at least two (2) years.

National Art Honor Society Sponsor Award:

Awarded to an NAHS Sponsor for sponsoring an exemplary National Art Honor Society Chapter. Supporting evidence of achievement must be provided through letter from nominator, newsletters, photographs, and/or written records.

TAEA School Principal Award:

Awarded to one non-TAEA member of an Elementary, Middle/Junior High School or Senior High School in the state of Texas. The principal should have demonstrated unusual support for art education and for the visual arts. Supporting evidence of achievements must be provided through letter from nominator, newsletter, photographs, and/or written records.

Friend(s) of Art Education Award:

Awarded to non-TAEA members (e.g. School Board members, Superintendents, Administrators, Principals, Commercial Vendor, Publishers, Advocates, and Others) who have significantly contributed to the association and to art education of the state, local and/or national levels. Recommendation and supporting evidence must be provided through the letter from nominator, newsletters, photographs, and/or written records.

Special Recognition Awards

Service to Texas Award:

Awarded to an outstanding TAEA member or group for exemplary, distinguished service and dedication to foster, celebrate and enhance art education in Texas at the local, state and national level. This award may not be given annually and nomination must come from TAEA Executive Board.

Lone Star Art Advocate Award:

Awarded to outstanding individual(s), groups or agencies for exemplary, distinguished support and continued advocacy in the interest of art and art education in Texas at the local, state and national level. This award may not be given annually and nomination must come from TAEA Executive Board.

Awards Nomination Timeline:

Award Nominations must be stored online through the online nomination system. Online nomination forms will be available to the Council at Large during the conference CAL meeting and made available to the general membership on the Monday following conference. The nomination window will close at midnight one calendar week before the date of the Spring CAL meeting.

Awards Policy: Qualifications

In all categories except Lone Star Art Advocate, Principal and Friend(s) of Art Education the nominee must be an active member of TAEA, must have contributed at both the local and state level to art education, and must have exhibited a personal commitment to advancing art education.

(See directions to committee for more specific data.)

General Guidelines:

Who may nominate for TAEA Awards?

All members may nominate any qualified candidate. Members may only write one letter per awards category whether it be a letter of nomination or recommendation.

NAEA Western Division and National Awards?

TAEA awards recipients may have letters of nomination or recommendation written by the President or the Awards Chair if they choose. They will automatically have their name submitted to both Western Division and National if they choose the year following their award at state. Any Western Region Award winner will automatically be nominated for National unless otherwise noted by the awards chair.

What if the nominee was not selected?

After the awards are announced, the awards chair will send a letter or email to those nominators whose nominees were not selected thanking them for participating and encouraging them to resubmit the name the following year.

Selecting the Awards Committee:

The Awards chair will select a tentative list of between 25-30 members of the association that includes:

- ☐ All members of the Executive Board
- ☐ Any Past Presidents by request of the Chair or the Executive Board.
- ☐ Members of the Executive Council, and the Fellows

These members must reflect an equitable balance of the membership populace and geographic areas across the state.

The names of those to serve on the awards committee will then be submitted for review by the Presidents' Board (all those who have served as President of TAEA including the current President-elect and President). A regional map should be included to locate members.

Their recommendations will then be brought before the Executive Board for approval.

Voting and Notification

The committee members may vote for one nominee in each category. If a committee member is a nominee, he or she may not vote in that one category.

If there were 3 or more candidates and there was no clear majority vote, then there would be a run-off election between the top candidates.

If no one is nominated by the deadline, then the Board may choose to A) nominate candidate(s), B) extend the nomination window for that category, or C) that category will remain empty. If there is only one nominee, then the nomination stands.

All nominations for TAEA awards must be approved by the executive board prior to any communication of the nominee or award committee.

Service to Texas Award

2016 Elizabeth Harris Willett

Distinguished Fellows:

Description:

The Texas Art Education Association herein establishes a category of membership in TAEA to be called Distinguished Fellows of the Texas Art Education Association. Under this program, the Association may confer the Title Fellow on members who have made long-term distinguished contributions to the work of the association and to the advancement of the profession. Fellows are expected to maintain an active membership in the Association for at least until their retirement: an active membership beyond retirement is encouraged. The title, Distinguished Fellow of the Texas Art Education Association, is not subject to revocation of membership if not maintained, except by a two-thirds vote of all Fellows, a two-thirds vote of the Executive Board, and for cause clearly inimical to the Association and the art education profession.

Purpose:

The purpose of the Distinguished Fellows program includes the following:

1. To recognize TAEA members who have given long and distinguished service and leadership to the Association.
2. To encourage continued leadership and active involvement in the affairs of the Association.
3. To constitute an advisory group of committed professional art educators for long-term TAEA development.
4. To provide a mechanism for continued professional and scholarly contributions to association activities and programs.

Responsibilities:

Individuals honored, as Distinguished Fellows shall, upon request:

1. Serve as an advisory committee for policy questions that relate to the history and continuity of the goals of the association.
2. Function as an advisory group for long-term financial development.
3. Provide motivation and guidance for emerging leaders.
4. Serve on special committee of TAEA.
5. Help in promoting TAEA in a positive manner.
6. Establish and maintain a TAEA speakers bureau.

Meet at least once a year – during the Annual Fall Conference could be that one time.

Criteria for Nomination of Fellows:

To be considered one must have been an active member of TAEA for at least ten (10) years. The following criteria for nomination are not intended to be exclusive nor is it expected that every Fellow will qualify on each criterion. Those individuals nominated, however, need to demonstrate a reasonable profile of accomplishment extending across several criteria. Final acceptance will be based on:

1. The nominee's accomplishments.
2. Significance of overall contributions to art education and the Association.

Important Criteria to be Considered:

1. Being President of TAEA.
2. Chairing a TAEA Standing Committee.
3. A member of a TAEA Standing Committee.
4. Term on TAEA Executive Board.
5. Editor of TAEA Journal/Newsletter.
6. Regional Representative.
7. Division Chairperson.
8. TAEA Art Educator of the Year.
9. Presidential appointment(s) that were approved by the TAEA Executive Committee.
10. Conference Local Chairperson (State and/or National).
11. Conference Local Committee (State and/or National).
12. Conference Session Speaker (State and/or National).
13. Professional publications, research, creative work, or related activity which is reported regionally and/or nationally:
 - a. Books
 - b. Articles
 - c. Book Reviews
 - d. Exhibitions
14. TAEA, NAEA, or other awards that honor exemplary teaching, research, scholarship, or professional service.
15. NAEA service:
 - a. NAEA Elected Office
 - b. NAEA Award
 - c. NAEA Delegates Assembly
 - d. Number of years as NAEA member
16. Number of years of teaching credit.
17. Number of years as a TAEA member.
18. Service with related professional groups.
19. Other services.

The Fellows Nomination, Election, and Administration:

No more than two percent (2%) of the TAEA membership may be Fellows at any one time. It is suggested that only two (2) members be elected Fellows annually. However, if two percent (2%) of the membership of the TAEA are Fellows, then no election may take place. Actual TAEA membership count shall be as of October 31st each year to determine actual percentage of members eligible for nomination.

The nominating committee and all other governance functions of the Fellows will be administered by the current Fellows annually. Candidates for membership in the Fellows must be submitted to the TAEA Executive Board for its endorsement by March 1st of each year by a nominating committee of no less than two Fellows who have been appointed by the Fellows chairperson. Nominees (or their advocate) are expected to prepare a concise record of their accomplishments which relate to the criteria for qualification as a Fellow. Upon receipt of this record, the nomination committee ascertains if the nominee is qualified. Once a nominee is deemed qualified, then his/her name will be submitted for consideration to all TAEA Fellows who will vote to approve the nominee by a simple majority. Fellows will be inducted at a general session or other appropriate annual conference forum.

The Fellows Award:

The award shall consist of two (2) components: A certificate and a medallion. The medallion shall have inscribed the name of the Fellow, the year awarded, and the name "TAEA Distinguished Fellow." All Fellows are encouraged to wear their medallion at the 2nd General Session or at the time the new Fellows are inducted into the group. They may wear this medallion at any other occasion during the Annual Fall Conference or a TAEA event as appropriate.

Awards Nomination Etiquette:

(Written policy regarding proper etiquette on nominations of candidates)

When a member of TAEA is nominated for a Western Region Award in one year the President or Awards Chair, on behalf of the association, will write the letter of nomination for the corresponding national award the following year. The recipient of the Award of Distinguished Fellow will obtain a Lifetime TAEA Membership.

The Texas Art Education Foundation will review all applications. Any scholarship awards will be based on availability of funds with priority given first to HS type. Amounts of awards will vary due to revenues available. The selection process must be completed and all candidates notified before the end of May.

IX. Annual Fall Conference

Host City Selection:

Host City and site are selected through the collaboration of the Executive Director, the President, and the President-elect.

Frequently Asked Question: CONFERENCE LOCATION

Question- How does the Texas Art Education Association Executive Board decide where to hold the annual conference?

Answer- The board must consider many variables when choosing the location of the annual conference.

COST - The cost per member to attend must be affordable. Some considerations include rental of the conference center, internet connectivity, and the hotel/conference center requirements. Sometimes the convention center provides complimentary Wi-Fi and sometimes TAEA has to purchase Wi-Fi. For example, in McAllen, the city provided Wi-Fi with no cost to anyone! Unfortunately, some cities have become too expensive.

SPACE - The conference center and hotel have to be able to accommodate all of the amazing workshops, speakers, and the vendors. The workshops need flexible seating, a variety of room sizes, projection screen set-up, and a nearby water source. Display space for the Gold Seal Exhibit and local art, the Artisan's Market, and Walk-up workshops is also a consideration.

AVAILABILITY – conference centers and hotels need to meet the availability of our November conference dates. Many facilities are unable accommodate the TAEA Conference schedule.

OFF-SITE EXPERIENCES – Conference locations should have plenty of opportunities for members to attend experience institutes, workshops, museums, and galleries. Admission fees to off-site events should be affordable and transportation should be expedient.

HOTEL DATE & TIME COMPATIBILITY – It is critical when selecting a hotel and convention center that the dates line up for both facilities. First, we need to have dates in November and the hotel sleeping rooms have to be available at the same dates as the convention center meeting space.

LODGING – Conference hotels must be suitably located near the conference center, have low cost or free parking, and give a price break on blocks of rooms. The larger the hotel, the higher the room prices.

MULTI-YEAR CONTRACTS - Conferences are often planned 5 years in advance. Sometimes hotels/conference centers give TAEA a price break if we schedule another conference at the same location within 3 to 4 years.

CONFERENCE TEAM - The members of the local TAEA Conference committee organize and plan the conference. The conference committee is typically local so that they are knowledgeable of the area's resources and are available to meet regularly during the year prior to the conference.

GEOGRAPHY – TAEA leadership believes that it is important to bring the conference to as many regions of the state as possible. This gives our organization an opportunity to engage more of our members in leadership roles and to connect with members in a variety of locations across our state.

Conference Special Guests:

- ☐ NAEA Position: A NAEA invited guest will receive 2 nights hotel stay and transportation to and from the Conference. Registration will be waived and a ticket will be provided for any food function.
- ☐ Texas Commission on the Arts: one representative from this organization will receive a free registration.
- ☐ TCQAE: one representative from this organization will receive a free registration.
- ☐ CEDFA: one representative will receive a free registration.
- ☐ TEA ARTS: one consultant will receive a free registration.

Duties of the Annual Conference Chairs:

Reports to: President, Executive Director, & Executive Board

Primary Purpose: Organizes and handles all local arrangements under the guidance and direction of either the President, President-elect, and/or Executive Director.

Responsibilities:

1. Selects local committee members and organize meetings. Suggested committees are: Registration, Facilitators, Signage, Local Art Show, Offsite Events, Transportation, Bags, Decorations, etc.
2. Provides local transportation to events as needed.
3. Selects a conference treasurer and secretary from the local committee to handle financial & budget matters as well as record-keeping.
4. Meets frequently (can be by phone) with the Conference Chair which will be the President or the President-elect.
5. Prepare either paper (including copies for all members) or electronic report for the 2 Council-at-Large meetings and present it to the CAL if requested by the President.
6. Arranges for on-site visits to conference hotel and/or convention center.
7. Works with all others involved in conference planning, such as the Editor, the Commercial Exhibitors' Chair and the Office Manager.
8. Follows guidelines set forth by Texas Art Education Association Annual Conference Planning Handbook.

X. Student Events Highlights

- ☐ Youth Art Month & TASA/TASB (all level)
- ☐ VASE (high school)
- ☐ State VASE (high school)
- ☐ Jr. VASE (middle school/junior high)
- ☐ TEAM (elementary)

Standards for Originality in Students Artworks:

The following position statement shall be written in the rules for all art contests, exhibition, and events sponsored by TAEA:

The Texas Art Education Association (TAEA) upholds the highest standards for art production that must be evident in original works of art as guided by the Texas Essential Knowledge and Skills. TAEA believes that for artwork to be truly original, the main focal point of any artwork must have an original source. Direct observation is encouraged. Copying of any image not original to the student is considered non-compliant to originality in artwork production and a possible violation of copyright law in the case of copying a published image. The responsibility to instruct, encourage, and monitor originality lies with the teacher. Teachers need to uphold the highest standards in their teaching and the integrity of art contests, exhibitions, and events.

The following artistic processes must be used for the artwork to be considered original:

- No published sources of any kind can be used.
- Students must create the artwork from observation, their imagination, their experiences, or a photograph taken by the student who produced the artwork.
- Family photos of close family members and/or events may be used as a source if not taken by a professional photographer or artist.
- Composition and/or concept of the artwork must be original and may not replicate the artwork of another artist.
- Automated electronic enhancements are not considered original when the program is making the sole artistic choice for the artist.
- The artwork should not be a replication of an automated electronic enhancement.
- TAEA/VASE strictly adheres to Fair Use and Copyright Law as stated in the U. S. Constitution Art. I, S 8, cl. 8.
- The use of logos is allowed as a secondary reference.

The following processes may not be used and are considered unethical in art production for students:

- Images traced with the use of an overhead, opaque projector, or other electronic devices.
- Copying any published images.
- Copying or reproducing in any media a published image, photograph, album/CD/DVD cover, how-to-book, magazine, image from historical or contemporary art history, etc.
- Artwork including any licensed character.
- Unless the photograph was self directed and of themselves, photographs taken by the art teacher may not be used as resource for any student artwork. Because of an art teacher's training they are considered a professional.
- Teacher-directed art production where every student artwork is identical.
- Teacher directly working on student artwork.

Contests and Competitions:

The Texas art Education Association only endorses supervised and thoughtful participation in contests or competitions in art for elementary, middle level or junior high school and for high school students. It is the position of this Association that the nature and purpose of some contests are often incompatible with several of the tenets of quality art education advocated by TAEA.

- ☐ Art experiences need to reflect the intent of the state and national standards of a comprehensive art education experience with all four of the components of studio production, perception, art history & culture and evaluation (reflection & assessment). Too often contests focus on the final product, when in fact it is the entire process from perception of an idea to the final creation that is the essential art experience.
- ☐ Art education experiences are grounded in age-appropriate developmental practices. Elementary lessons focus on process, exploration, and initial experience with skills and concepts relating to art and developmentally appropriate for the child. Middle level lessons build upon exploration with skills and concept development making them relevant to the child. High school art education integrates all of the components of the comprehensive art education lesson towards the refinement of the student's artist's personal expression.

The art teacher needs to make careful consideration and evaluation of each such competition based upon these criteria.

- ☐ Educationally and instructionally relevant and valuable.
- ☐ Supports the state standards in visual arts.
- ☐ Developmental appropriate expectations.
- ☐ Fits into the classroom time constraints and instructional time sequence.
- ☐ Themes for contest are not religious or politically based.
- ☐ Purpose and audience are compatible.
- ☐ Reasonable structure, timing and implementation of the contest.
- ☐ Level of support and recognition for all participants without exploration.
- ☐ Qualified judges select work based upon published criteria.
- ☐ Neither students nor art teachers are forced to participate and their grade or job is not dependent upon competitions.

Contests and competitions are desirable in cases where:

- ☐ The nature and purpose is compatible with the standards of a comprehensible art education program.
- ☐ The topic has educational value of the needs, interests, and concerns of the learner and teachers.
- ☐ They are appropriately included in the educational sequence.
- ☐ They provide an opportunity for art teachers to positively influence future involvement initiated by community groups.

Contests and competitions in art are undesirable in cases where:

- ☐ An intrinsic superiority of one student or one work of art over another is implied. Art education should be directed toward developing the creative potential of a wide spectrum of student capabilities.
- ☐ The contest or competition does not encourage standardization of skill and technique. This practice limits student expression instead of developing diversity of expression.

- There is an exploitation of students and teachers by imposing the interests and objectives of the sponsors at the expense of art and expression. Effective instruction is based upon the needs, interests, and purpose of learners and teachers along with local, state, and national art curricula or standards.
- The contest or competition interrupts the planned developmental sequence of instructional experiences that are essential to effective instruction.
- Participation in the contest or competition takes too much instructional time. Many art students, especially at the elementary level, receive art instruction one day a week. Diverting this precious instructional time may not be in the best educational interest of the students.
- The contest or competitions promote arbitrary standards, which may be in conflict with those being developed within the planned instructional program.
- Art educators who support the State & National Standards in Art Education are not included in the planning stages of the contest or competition by the agency initiating contests for schools. There are alternatives to contests; art teachers need to be vocal and willing to work with the community to find other avenues to support both the needs of the community and the educational interests of their art students.

XI. Local Art Education Association (LAEA)

Relationship

The intent of TAEA is to have separate, self-governing local art education associations (LAEA) to further promote art education and professional development in local Texas communities. A local art education association is not an affiliate of TAEA under the TAEA constitution.

LAEA are given representation within the state association through the TAEA Council-at-Large (CAL). Representation with TAEA entitles each local association to have two (2) representatives serve on the TAEA Council-at-Large. The TAEA constitution states each representative is obligated by the TAEA Constitution to be “a member of TAEA.”

1. To maintain membership on the TAEA Council-at-Large (CAL), a LAEA must:
submit an annual report, including current board leadership, contact information and election cycle.
2. send representation to the fall and spring CAL meeting .
3. and on odd-numbered years, the LAEA must present a current constitution/by-laws to the TAEA President for association records.

It is the responsibility of the LAEA to keep contact information updated with TAEA for continuous flow of communication.

It is the duty of the last out-going LAEA President of an inactive local art education association to notify the TAEA President of dissolution of the LAEA.

Organizing a Local Art Education Association

This is a step-by-step process for organizing a local/area association and gaining representation in the Texas Art Education Association.

1. Plan an organizational meeting to bring together all interested art educators, supervisors, consultants and administrators in your district and the surrounding area. Some associations already established have been made up of a number of small school districts spread out across large areas of the state.
2. The organizational meeting should address the following points:
 - A. The name of your association
 - B. Will officers be appointed or elected?
 - C. What will the slate of officers consist of?
 - President
 - Vice-President (President-elect)
 - Recording Secretary
 - Corresponding Secretary
 - Treasurer
 - Parliamentarian
 - Historian
 - D. Appointing a committee to write a constitution
(Follow the suggested constitution format)
 - E. Association dues and finances.
 - F. Develop standing committees and a chairperson for each:

(Standing committees may not be necessary at this time)

Membership Committee

Publicity Committee

Professional Development Committee

Public Relations Committee

Youth Art Month Committee

Program Committee

Newsletter Committee

Telephone Committee

Directory Committee

G. Duties of each committee should be outlined in the constitution

H. Decide on frequency of meetings and meeting structures.

3. Submit a copy of the association's constitution to the President of TAEA along with a letter requesting TAEA's approval. The Executive Board to TAEA will vote on whether or not to grant representation and will notify the local association's President.
4. Set up a calendar of activities and events for the coming year. Develop an outline for the year and delegate a program committee to take care of details.
5. Discuss possible workshops or professional development to be offered by the association. Obtain pre-approval and instructions from the Executive Director for any CPE credit offered through workshops and/or professional development.
6. Representation with TAEA entitles each local association to have two (2) representatives serve on the TAEA Council-at-Large. The TAEA constitution states each representative is obligated by the TAEA Constitution to be "a member of TAEA."
7. All local/area associations represented within TAEA are required to submit an annual report to the Office Manager of TAEA prior to October 1 of each year.

NOTE: The goal of a local/area art education is to promote art education in the community and professional development among art educators. Limiting the amount of rules and regulations in the association will help to build a stronger, more successful and creative group.

Constructing a Constitution for a Local Organization:

Minimum structure:

Article I	Name
Article II	Purpose
Article III	Membership
Article IV	Officers, duties, terms, election process
Article V	Meetings (Frequency)
Article VI	Assessment of dues
Article VII	Amendments
Article VIII	General references to committees (optional) Parliamentary law states that the association can create committees as needed and the president can appoint Committee members.
Article IX	Executive council or committee (optional) This should be clearly stated and its authority made clear in the body of the association's constitution.

Hints for Developing a Constitution

1. A constitution is divided into “Articles” usually assigned Roman numerals. Each Article is divided into “Sections” using Arabic numerals.
2. The constitution should be short and compact, general rather than detailed. Rather than set specific days to meet (i.e. “the second Friday of each month”), a boarder time frame (...regular intervals throughout the school year) gives the association more flexibility.
3. Use common sense and common language. Legal jargon is not necessary or desired in a professional association constitution, it is only necessary in a law-making public document.
4. Use simple future or present of verbs.
5. Make certain that a term of office extends until the installation of a successor.
6. There should always be a provision for filling vacancies.
7. Election of officers should be by simple majority (plurality) vote.
8. Make sure you have indicated a minimum number of meetings.
9. Your statement of purpose should be broad enough so that matters only directly related to it may be considered.
10. A nominating committee is not required to nominate more than one candidate for each vacancy.
11. There should be a provision made for reference to a specific parliamentary procedure text.

Explanation of Selected Parts of the Constitution:

The Purpose

The purpose or objectives should be stated rather broadly. If too specific, a member could challenge the right to use the organization’s funds for some special purpose, arguing that it is not in line with the objectives.

Amendments

Amendments are corrections or alterations for the constitution. A two-thirds vote is required for the amendment to pass and these are added to the amendment list.

Policies and Procedures

Items that are specific in nature therefore should not be a part of a constitution because these policies and procedures need constant update and revision and amendments to a constitution require a two-thirds vote for ratification. Policies and Procedures are presented to the Executive Board for approval.

Probable Policies and Procedures subjects:

1. Order of business
2. Meeting dates
3. Committee lists
4. Places of meetings
5. Provision for representation or affiliation (TAEA)
6. Procedural details of election
7. Receipts, deposits, and appropriations of funds
8. Filling of vacancies

Membership

This should include dates of membership and requirements of members, including dues and affiliation with TAEA.

Nominating

It is not necessary to require two or more candidates be nominated for an office. The constitution could be written. It is not uncommon for people to be nominated from the floor and voted into office unanimously.

Choose your own method of nomination:

1. Nomination from the floor (most practical)
2. Nomination by committee (most common)
3. Nomination by petition (least practical and popular)

XII. Code of Ethics

We declare the following statements to be guiding principles of the Texas Art Education Association. It is our belief that the art educator must ensure that conduct in the practice of the profession is above reproach. We declare as our purpose the improvement of the artistic and ethical standards of the Texas Art Education Association. We believe that art has an integral role to play in the education of Texas school children. To maintain that important role, Texas art educators must clearly understand their duties and obligations and perpetuate the dignity and honor of the profession. It is not the intent of TAEA that this code supersede any other codes to which the TAEA member might be subject. This code is intended to enhance those originating from the Texas Education Agency.

Section I: Responsibilities of the Profession

An Ethical Teacher:

1. Will recognize that the profession demands integrity, high ideals, and dedication of service to youth.
2. Will endeavor to promote positive professional relations with colleagues in the educational system.
3. Will neither accept nor offer any gratuity, favor, service, or thing of value that would appear to result in special concession or diminished capacity of impartial professional judgment.
4. Will build a professional reputation based upon ability and integrity.
1. Will maintain all records sufficiently accounting for all monies and conduct financial affairs with integrity.
2. Will honor, support, and protect colleagues and other school personnel in the proper performance of their duties.
3. Will recognize that the self-discipline of the profession is a responsibility of each member.
4. Will report to the appropriate body of peers any conduct by a colleague, which is considered detrimental to the profession.

Section II: Responsibilities to the Student

An Ethical Teacher:

1. Will not unfairly exclude a student from participation in an exhibition or contest, deny benefits to a student, or gain advantage to a student on the basis of race, color, gender, handicap, national origin, or marital status.
2. Will consider the individuality of each student when resolving problems including discipline, and such resolutions shall be accomplished according to laws and school board policy.
3. Will recognize that a student's opportunities for recognition, award, and scholarship are dependent upon the art teachers' promotion of participation by students and the timely and accurate record keeping for each event.
4. Will refrain from using students' successes for purely personal or partisan gain.
5. Will design and employ methods of instruction that seek to develop the highest educational potential of art students.
6. Will continually engage in activities that promote professional growth.

Section III: Responsibilities to the Community

An Ethical Teacher:

1. Will model conduct at all times in such a manner as to merit the respect of the public for members of the art education profession.
2. Will maintain an active role in developing positive school/community relations.
3. Will remain cognizant of the impact of the students' home environment on the efforts of the school and will attempt to understand and accept existing community cultures.
4. Will make every effort to communicate with parents when the interests of the student would best be served by such communication.
5. Will strive to improve the artistic culture of the community and to instill an appreciation for the arts.
6. Will remain aware of current legislation affecting education in general and the arts in particular.

Copyright and Fair Use Guidelines for Teachers

As an ethical consideration, TAEA supports and encourages their members' adherence to the copyright and fair use guidelines for teachers.

Medium: Printed Material (short)

Specifics:

- ☐ Poem less than 250 words; 250-word excerpt of poem greater than 250 words
- ☐ Articles, stories, or essays less than 2,500 words
- ☐ One chart, picture, diagram, or cartoon per book or per periodical issue
- ☐ Two pages (maximum) from an illustrated work less than 2,500 words, e.g., a children's book

What you can do:

- ☐ Teachers may make multiple copies for classroom use, and incorporate into multimedia for teaching classes.
- ☐ Students may incorporate text into multimedia projects.

The Fine Print:

- ☐ Copies may be made only from legally acquired originals.
- ☐ Only one copy allowed per student.
- ☐ Teachers may make copies in nine instances per class per term.
- ☐ Usage must be "at the instance and inspiration of a single teacher," i.e., not a directive from the district.
- ☐ Don't create anthologies.
- ☐ "Consumables," such as workbooks, may not be copied.

Medium: Printed Material (archives)

Specifics:

- ☐ An entire work
- ☐ Portions of a work
- ☐ A work in which the existing format has become obsolete, e.g., a document stored on a Wang computer

What you can do:

- ☐ A librarian may make up to three copies "solely for the purpose of replacement of a copy that is damaged, deteriorating, lost, or stolen."

The Fine Print:

- ☐ Copies must contain copyright information.
- ☐ Archiving rights are designed to allow libraries to share with other libraries one-of-a-kind and out-of-print books.

Medium: Illustrations and Photographs

Specifics:

- ☐ Photograph
- ☐ Illustration
- ☐ Collections of photographs
- ☐ Collections of illustrations

What you can do:

- ☐ Single works may be used in their entirety, but no more than five images by a single artist or photographer may be used.
- ☐ From a collection, not more than 15 images or 10 percent (whichever is less) may be used.

The Fine Print:

- ☐ Although older illustrations may be in the public domain and don't need permission to be used, sometimes they're part of a copyright collection. Copyright ownership information is available at www.loc.gov or www.mpa.org.

Medium: Video (for viewing)

Specifics:

- ☐ DVDs
- ☐ Flash drives

What you can do:

- ☐ Teachers may use these materials in the classroom.
- ☐ Copies may be made for archival purposes or to replace lost, damaged, or stolen copies.

The Fine Print:

- ☐ The material must be legitimately acquired.
- ☐ Material must be used in a classroom or nonprofit environment "dedicated to face-to-face instruction."
- ☐ Use should be instructional, not for entertainment or reward.
- ☐ Copying OK only if replacements are unavailable at a fair price or in a viable format.

Medium: Video (for integration into multimedia or video projects)

Specifics:

- ☐ DVDs
- ☐ Flash Drives
- ☐ Multimedia encyclopedias
- ☐ QuickTime Movies
- ☐ Video clips from the Internet

What you can do:

- ☐ Students "may use portions of lawfully acquired copyright works in their academic multimedia," defined as 10% or three minutes (whichever is less) of "motion media."

The Fine Print:

- ☐ The material must be legitimately acquired: a legal copy (not bootleg) or home recording.

- ☐ Copyright works included in multimedia projects must give proper attribution to copyright holder

Medium: Music (for integration into multimedia or video projects)

Specifics: 10% of up to 30 seconds of a song only

- ☐ Records
- ☐ Cassette tapes
- ☐ CDs
- ☐ Audio clips on the Web

What you can do:

- ☐ Up to 10% of a copyright musical composition may be reproduced, performed, and displayed as part of a multimedia program produced by an educator or students.

The Fine Print:

- ☐ A maximum of 30 seconds per musical composition may be used.
- ☐ Multimedia program must have an educational purpose.

Medium: Computer Software

Specifics:

- ☐ Software (purchased)
- ☐ Software (licensed)

What you can do:

- ☐ Library may lend software to patrons.
- ☐ Software may be installed on multiple machines, and distributed to users via a network.
- ☐ Software may be installed at home and at school.
- ☐ Libraries may make copies for archival use or to replace lost, damaged, or stolen copies of software is unavailable at a fair price or in a viable format.

The Fine Print:

- ☐ Only one machine at a time may use the program.
- ☐ The number of simultaneous users must not exceed the number of licenses; and the number of machines being used must never exceed the number licensed. A network license may be required for multiple users.
- ☐ Take aggressive action to monitor that copying is not taking place (unless for archival purposes).

Medium: Internet

Specifics:

- ☐ Internet connections
- ☐ World Wide Web

What you can do:

- ☐ Images may be downloaded for student projects and teacher lessons.
- ☐ Sound files and video may be downloaded for use in multimedia projects (see portion restrictions above).

The Fine Print:

- ☐ Resources from the Web may not be reposted onto the Internet without permission. However, links to legitimate resources can be posted.
- ☐ Any resources you download must have been legitimately acquired by the Web site.

Medium: Television

Specifics:

- ☐ Broadcast (e.g., ABC, NBC, CBS, UPN, PBS, and local stations)
- ☐ Cable (e.g., CNN, MTV, HBO)
- ☐ Videotapes made of broadcast and cable TV programs

What you can do:

- ☐ Broadcasts or tapes made from broadcast may be used for instruction
- ☐ Cable channel programs may be used with permission. Many programs may be retained by teachers for years – see Cable in the Classroom (www.ciconline.org) for details.

The Fine Print:

- ☐ Schools are allowed to retain broadcast tapes for a minimum of 10 school days. (Enlightened rights holders, such as PBS's Reading Rainbow, allow for much more.)
- ☐ Cable programs are technically not covered by the same guidelines as broadcast television.

Texas Art Education Association

Conflict of Interest Policy

Article I Purpose

The purpose of the conflict of interest policy is to protect the (tax-exempt) Texas Art Education Association's interest when it is contemplating entering into a transaction or arrangement that might benefit the private interest of an officer, director, chairperson or might result in a possible excess benefit transaction. This policy is intended to supplement but, not replace, any applicable state and federal laws governing conflict of interest applicable to nonprofit and charitable organizations.

Article II Definitions

1. Interested Person

Any principal officer, director or member of a committee with governing board delegated powers, who has a direct or indirect financial interest, as defined below, is an interested person.

2. Financial Interest

A person has a financial interest if the person has, directly or indirectly, through business, investment, or family:

- a. An ownership or investment interest in any entity with which the Texas Art Education Association has a financial transaction or arrangement,
- b. A compensation arrangement with the Texas Art Education Association or with any entity or individual with which the Texas Art Education Association has a transaction or arrangement, or
- c. A potential ownership or investment interest in, or compensation arrangement with, any entity or individual with which the Texas Art Education Association is negotiating a transaction or arrangement.

Compensation includes direct and indirect remuneration as well as gifts or favors that are not insubstantial.

A financial interest is not necessarily a conflict of interest. Under Article III, Section 2, a person who has a financial interest may have a conflict of interest only if the appropriate governing board or committee decided that a conflict of interest exists.

Article III Procedures

1. Duty to Disclose

In connection with any actual or possible conflict of interest, an interested person must disclose the existence of the financial interest and be given the opportunity to disclose all material facts to the principal officers, director and members of committees with governing board delegated powers considering the proposed transaction or arrangement.

2. Determining Whether a Conflict of Interest Exists

After disclosure of the financial interest and all material facts, and after any discussion with the interested person, he/she shall leave the governing board or committee meeting while the determination of a conflict of interest is discussed and voted upon. The remaining presiding officers, director or committee members shall decide if a conflict of interest exists.

3. Procedures for Addressing the Conflict of Interest:

- a. An interested person may make a presentation at the governing board or committee meeting, but after the presentation, he/she shall leave the meeting during the discussion of, and the vote on, the transaction or arrangement involving the possible conflict of interests.
- b. The chairperson of the governing board or committee shall, if appropriate, appoint a disinterested person or committee to investigate alternatives to the proposed transaction or arrangement.
- c. After exercising due diligence, the governing board or committee shall determine whether the Texas Art Education Association can obtain with reasonable efforts a more advantageous transaction or arrangement from a person or entity that would not give rise to a conflict of interest or make another suitable arrangement.
- d. If a more advantageous transaction or arrangement is not reasonably possible under circumstances not producing a conflict of interest, the governing board or committee shall determine by a majority vote of the disinterested directors whether the transaction or arrangement is in the Texas Art Education Association's best interest, for its own benefit, and whether it is fair and reasonable. In conformity with the above determination it shall make its decision as to whether to enter into the transaction or arrangement.

4. Violations of the Conflicts of Interest Policy

- a. If the governing board or committee has reasonable cause to believe a member has failed to disclose actual or possible conflicts of interest, it shall inform the member of the basis for such belief and afford the member an opportunity to explain the alleged failure to disclose.
- b. If, after hearing the member's response and after making further investigation as warranted by the circumstances, the governing board or committee determines the member has failed to disclose an actual or possible conflict of interest, it shall take appropriate disciplinary and corrective action.
- c. Corrective action for violation of the Texas Art Education Association's conflict of interest policy may be a verbal/written censure, loss of office or position on the governing board or committee, loss of membership in the association or other actions voted on by the governing board.

Article IV Records of Proceedings

The minutes of the governing board and all committees with board delegated powers shall contain:

- a. The names of the persons who disclosed or otherwise were found to have a financial interest in connection with an actual or possible conflict of interest, the nature of the financial interest, any action taken to determine whether a conflict of interest was present, and the governing board's or committee's decision as to whether a conflict of interest in fact existed.
- b. The names of the persons who were present for discussions and votes relating to the transaction or arrangement, the content of the discussion, including any alternatives to the proposed transaction or arrangement, and a record of any votes taken in connection with the proceedings.

Article V Compensation

- a. A voting member of the governing board who received compensation (excluding Visual Arts Scholastic Event), directly or indirectly, from the Texas Art Education Association for services is precluded from voting on matters pertaining to that member's compensation.

- b. A voting member of any committee whose jurisdiction includes compensation matters and who receives compensation, directly or indirectly, from the Texas Art Education Association for services is precluded from voting on matters pertaining to that member's compensation.
- c. No voting member of the governing board or any committee whose jurisdiction includes compensation matters and who receives compensation, directly or indirectly, from the Texas Art Education Association, either individually or collectively, is prohibited from providing information to any committee regarding compensation.

Article VI

Annual Statements

Each principal officer, director and member of a committee with governing board delegated powers shall sign a statement which affirms such person:

- a. Has received a copy of the conflicts of interest policy,
- b. Has read and understands the policy,
- c. Has agreed to comply with the policy, and
- d. Understands that the Texas Art Education Association is a charitable organization and in order to maintain its federal tax exemption it must engage primarily in activities which accomplish one or more of its tax-exempt purposes.

Article VII

Periodic Reviews

To ensure that the Texas Art Education Association operates in a manner consistent with charitable purposes and does not engage in activities that could jeopardize its tax-exempt status, periodic reviews shall be conducted. The periodic reviews shall, at a minimum, include the following subjects:

- a. Whether compensation arrangements and benefits are reasonable, based on competent survey information and the result of arm's length bargaining.
- b. Whether partnerships, joint ventures, and arrangements with management organizations conform to the Texas Art Education Association's written policies, are properly recorded, reflect reasonable investment or payments for goods and services, further charitable purposes and do not result in inurement, impermissible private benefit or in an excess benefit transaction.

Article VIII

Use of Outside Experts

When conducting the periodic reviews as provided for in Article VII, that the Texas Art Education Association may, but need not, use outside advisors such as independent certified public accounts. If outside experts are used, their use shall not relieve the governing board of its responsibility for ensuring periodic reviews are conducted.

XIII. TAEA Meeting Operation Guidelines

Formal Consensus

The TAEA will operate under the fundamentals of Formal Consensus for all meetings. Formal Consensus is a process for making group decisions where there is a synthesis of everyone's ideas, incorporating everyone's best thinking freely shared during a meeting setting. Agreement is reached through a process of gathering information and viewpoints, discussion, persuasion, a combination of synthesis of proposals and/or the development of totally new ones. The goal of the consensus process is to reach a decision with which everyone can agree. Consensus at its best relies upon persuasion rather than pressure for reaching group unity. Consensus does not necessarily mean unanimity.

If there is a time when Formal Consensus cannot be reached amicably and the decision-making process breaks down, the TAEA's "ARTICLE XIV. Procedural Authority" Robert's Rules of Order, Newly Revised will be invoked and utilized to complete the decision or action.

The following is a description of Formal Consensus:

On Conflict and Consensus from <http://www.consensus.net/ocac1.html>, April 29, 2010

When choosing a decision-making method, one needs to ask two questions.

Is it a fair process?

Does it produce good solutions?

To judge the process, consider the following: Does the meeting flow smoothly? Is the discussion kept to the point? Does it take too long to make each decision? Does the leadership determine the outcome of the discussion? Are some people overlooked?

To judge the quality of the end result, the decision, consider: Are the people making the decision, and all those affected, satisfied with the result? To what degree is the intent of the original proposal accomplished? Are the underlying issues addressed? Is there an appropriate use of resources? Would the group make the same decision again?

Avoidance, denial, and repression of conflict is common during meetings. Therefore, using Formal Consensus might not be easy at first. The benefit of everyone's participation and cooperation is worth the struggle it may initially take to ensure that all voices are heard. It is often said that consensus is time-consuming and difficult. Making complex, difficult decisions is time-consuming, no matter what the process. Many different methods can be efficient, if every participant shares a common understanding of the rules of the game.

Conflict

While decision-making is as much about conflict as it is about agreement, Formal Consensus works best in an atmosphere in which conflict is encouraged, supported, and resolved cooperatively with respect, nonviolence, and creativity. Conflict is desirable. It is not something to be avoided, dismissed, diminished, or denied.

Majority Rule and Competition

Generally speaking, when a group votes using majority rule or Parliamentary Procedure, a competitive dynamic is created within the group because it is being asked to choose between two (or more) possibilities. It is just as acceptable to attack and diminish another's point of view as it is to promote and endorse your own ideas. Often, voting occurs before one side reveals anything about itself, but spends time solely attacking the opponent! In this adversarial environment, one's ideas are owned and often defended in the face of improvements.

Consensus and Cooperation

Consensus process, on the other hand, creates a cooperative dynamic. Only one proposal is considered at a time. Everyone works together to make it the best possible decision for the group. Any concerns are raised and resolved, sometimes one by one, until all voices are heard. Since proposals are no longer the property of the presenter, a solution can be created more cooperatively.

Proposals

In the consensus process, only proposals which intend to accomplish the common purpose are considered. During discussion of a proposal, everyone works to improve the proposal to make it the best decision for the group. All proposals are adopted unless the group decides it is contrary to the best interests of the group.

Formal Consensus is the least violent decision-making process.

Traditional nonviolence theory holds that the use of power to dominate is violent and undesirable. Nonviolence expects people to use their power to persuade without deception, coercion, or malice, using truth, creativity, logic, respect, and love. Majority rule voting process and Parliamentary Procedure both accept, and even encourage, the use of power to dominate others. The goal is the winning of the vote, often regardless of another choice which might be in the best interest of the whole group. The will of the majority supersedes the concerns and desires of the minority. This is inherently violent. Consensus strives to take into account everyone's concerns and resolve them before any decision is made. Most importantly, this process encourages an environment in which everyone is respected and all contributions are valued.

Formal Consensus is the most democratic decision-making process.

Groups which desire to involve as many people as possible need to use an inclusive process. To attract and involve large numbers, it is important that the process encourages participation, allows equal access to power, develops cooperation, promotes empowerment, and creates a sense of individual responsibility for the group's actions. All of these are cornerstones of Formal Consensus. The goal of consensus is not the selection of several options, but the development of one decision which is the best for the whole group. It is synthesis and evolution, not competition and attrition.

Formal Consensus is based on the principles of the group.

Although every individual must consent to a decision before it is adopted, if there are any objections, it is not the choice of the individual alone to determine if an objection prevents the proposal from being adopted. Every objection or concern must first be presented before the group and either resolved or validated. A valid objection is one in keeping with all previous decisions of the group and based upon the commonly-held principles or foundation adopted by the group. The objection must not only address the concerns of the individual, but it must also be in the best interest of the group as a whole. If the objection is not based upon the foundation, or is in contradiction with a prior decision, it is not valid for the group, and therefore, out of order.

Formal Consensus is desirable in larger groups.

If the structure is vague, decisions can be difficult to achieve. They will become increasingly more difficult in larger groups. Formal Consensus is designed for large groups. It is a highly structured model. It has guidelines and formats for managing meetings, facilitating discussions, resolving conflict, and reaching decisions. Smaller groups may need less structure, so they may choose from the many techniques and roles suggested in this book.

Formal Consensus works better when more people participate.

Consensus is more than the sum total of ideas of the individuals in the group. During discussion, ideas build one upon the next, generating new ideas, until the best decision emerges. This dynamic is called the creative interplay of ideas. Creativity plays a major part as everyone strives to discover what is best for the group. The more people involved in this cooperative process, the more ideas and possibilities are generated. Consensus works best with everyone participating. (This assumes, of course, that everyone in the group is trained in Formal Consensus and is actively using it.)

Formal Consensus cannot be secretly disrupted.

Since the assumption in Formal Consensus is one of cooperation and good will, it is always appropriate to ask for an explanation of how and why someone's actions are in the best interest of the group. Disruptive behavior must not be tolerated. While it is true this process cannot prevent openly disruptive behavior, the point is to prevent covert disruption, hidden agenda, and malicious manipulation of the process.

The following is a Consensus Guide:

1. Present proposal or issue by council members, executive board member or president. President is moderator.
2. Council members comment on proposal or issue or ask questions for clarification.
3. Group discussion invited.
4. Issue can either be considered individually or can be temporarily delayed until all proposals are presented and then council members will visit all issues listed on chart paper around the room and make comments. The "Chart Discussion" can become the Group Discussion.
5. Executive Board members will review group or chart discussion and make revisions to proposal if necessary. The revisions will again be presented to the council members for comments, questions and discussion.
6. Call for Consensus vote, "Is there Consensus on the Proposal? Vote "Yes" for approval. (pause) Any disapprove?"
 - a. If vote is 90% or more approval, there is consensus and proposal is adopted as is.
 - b. If vote is 51-90% disapproval, there is no consensus and proposal will be either tabled for further review and adoption at the next council meeting, or will be referred to committee for review and revision. This discussion and subsequent vote may also be presented electronically after council meeting is over.
 - c. If vote is less than 51% disapproval, there is no consensus and proposal will be disapproved and thereby eliminated or considered "not valid."

Robert's Rules of Order - Summary Version (For Fair and Orderly Meetings)

Purpose:

Provides common rules and procedures for deliberation and debate in order to place the whole membership on the same footing and speaking the same language. The conduct of ALL business is controlled by the general will of the whole membership - the right of the deliberate majority to decide. Complementary is the right of at least a strong minority to require the majority to be deliberate - to act according to its considered judgment AFTER a full and fair "working through" of the issues involved. Robert's Rules provides for constructive and democratic meetings, to help, not hinder, the business of the assembly. Under no circumstances should "undue strictness" be allowed to intimidate members or limit full participation.

The fundamental right of deliberative assemblies require all questions to be thoroughly discussed before taking action! The assembly rules - they have the final say on everything! Silence means consent!

Procedure:

1. Obtain the floor (the right to speak) by being the first to stand when the person speaking has finished; state Mr./Madam Chairman. Raising your hand means nothing, and standing while another has the floor is out of order! Must be recognized by the Chair before speaking!
2. Debate cannot begin until the Chair has stated the motion or resolution and asked "are you ready for the question?" If no one rises, the chair calls for the vote!
3. Before the motion is stated by the Chair (the question) members may suggest modification of the motion; the mover can modify as he pleases, or even withdraw the motion without consent of the seconder; if mover modifies, the seconder can withdraw the second.
4. The "immediately pending question" is the last question stated by the Chair!
Motion/Resolution - Amendment - Motion to Postpone
5. The member moving the "immediately pending question" is entitled to preference to the floor!
6. No member can speak twice to the same issue until everyone else wishing to speak has spoken to it once!
7. All remarks must be directed to the Chair. Remarks must be courteous in language and deportment - avoid all personalities, never allude to others by name or to motives!
8. The agenda and all committee reports are merely recommendations! When presented to the assembly and the question is stated, debate begins and changes occur!

The Rules:

1. Point of Privilege: Pertains to noise, personal comfort, etc. - may interrupt only if necessary!
2. Parliamentary Inquiry: Inquire as to the correct motion - to accomplish a desired result, or raise a point of order.
3. Point of Information: Generally applies to information desired from the speaker: "I should like to ask the (speaker) a question."
4. Orders of the Day (Agenda): A call to adhere to the agenda (a deviation from the agenda requires Suspending the Rules).
5. Point of Order: Infraction of the rules, or improper decorum in speaking. Must be raised immediately after the error is made.
6. Main Motion: Brings new business (the next item on the agenda) before the assembly.

7. Divide the Question: Divides a motion into two or more separate motions (must be able to stand on their own).
8. Consider by Paragraph: Adoption of paper is held until all paragraphs are debated and amended and entire paper is satisfactory; after all paragraphs are considered, the entire paper is then open to amendment, and paragraphs may be further amended. Any Preamble cannot be considered until debate on the body of the paper has ceased.
9. Amend: Inserting or striking out words or paragraphs, or substituting whole paragraphs or resolutions.
10. Withdraw/Modify Motion: Applies only after question is stated; mover can accept an amendment without obtaining the floor.
11. Commit /Refer/Recommit to Committee: State the committee to receive the question or resolution; if no committee exists include size of committee desired and method of selecting the members (election or appointment).
12. Extend Debate: Applies only to the immediately pending question; extends until a certain time or for a certain period of time.
13. Limit Debate: Closing debate at a certain time, or limiting to a certain period of time.
14. Postpone to a Certain Time: State the time the motion or agenda item will be resumed.
15. Object to Consideration: Objection must be stated before discussion or another motion is stated.
16. Lay on the Table: Temporarily suspends further consideration/action on pending question; may be made after motion to close debate has carried or is pending.
17. Take from the Table: Resumes consideration of item previously "laid on the table" - state the motion to take from the table.
18. Reconsider: Can be made only by one on the prevailing side who has changed position or view.
19. Postpone Indefinitely: Kills the question/resolution for this session - exception: the motion to reconsider can be made this session.
20. Previous Question: Closes debate if successful - may be moved to "Close Debate" if preferred.
21. Informal Consideration: Move that the assembly go into "Committee of the Whole" - informal debate as if in committee; this committee may limit number or length of speeches or close debate by other means by a 2/3 vote. All votes, however, are formal.
22. Appeal Decision of the Chair: Appeal for the assembly to decide - must be made before other business is resumed; NOT debatable if relates to decorum, violation of rules or order of business.
23. Suspend the Rules: Allows a violation of the assembly's own rules (except Constitution); the object of the suspension must be specified.

TAEA Rules of Procedure for Council Meetings:

All proposals for new items and/or revisions to policy to be presented at a Council Meeting must be first vetted and approved for presentation by the Executive Board and placed on the Council agenda before presenting to council.

- ☐ All voting members shall wear the proper identification badges.
- ☐ The Order of business may be suspended by two-thirds (2/3) vote of the Council.
- ☐ Any member wishing to speak must rise, address the Chair, and give his/her name before being assigned the floor.
- ☐ All motions and resolutions shall be written (in duplicate) on the official form, signed by the proponents and presented to the Chair through the Credentials Committee.
- ☐ The Chair shall recognize “for” and “against” any question in alternating order so long as there are opposing speakers desiring to be heard.
- ☐ Only accredited voting members of the Council may present motions and vote.
- ☐ Any rule herein provided may be suspended by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the Council.
- ☐ In the interest of time, the Chair reserves the right to limit the length of a discussion.
- ☐ The Revised Roberts Rules of Order shall govern the proceedings of meetings in all cases in which they are not inconsistent with the TAEA Constitution, By-Laws, or these rules.

TAEA Voting Procedures:

- ☐ All TAEA membership vote for officers and for changes in the Constitution and By-Laws. Voting is conducted by mail-in ballot to TAEA Headquarters.
- ☐ Members of the Council-at-Large vote on general business of the organization at its biannual sessions. Voting is done by signifying Yes/No, verbal or by hand count
- ☐ Voting Power.....sample: I, Name, President of the Association Name, wish to give my voting power to Name, Treasurer of the Association Name, for the meeting name of the Texas Art Education Association.

Order of Business or Agenda:

The “order of business” is the established sequence in which business is taken up during a meeting. It is a blueprint for meetings and provides a systematic plan for the orderly conduct of business.

- ☐ Reading and Approval of Minutes: copies of the minutes will be available, the actual reading may be waived. Following any corrections or additions, the minutes should be approved. Approval of the minutes is usually handled by unanimous consent.
- ☐ Reports of Officers, Boards, and Standing Committees: the chair calls on only those members who have reports. These reports may be supplied to members either physically or electronically. A motion arising out of one of these reports is taken up immediately, since the object of the order of business is to give priority to the classes of business in the order listed.
- ☐ Reports of Special (or Ad Hoc) Committees: special or ad hoc committees do not have continual existence, but exist solely for the purposes of a specific project.
- ☐ Unfinished Business: unfinished or “old” business refers to questions that have carried over from the previous meeting as a result of that meeting having adjourned without completing its order of business. The following items are considered under unfinished business: (a) The question that was pending when the previous meeting adjourned; (b) Any question not reached at the previous meeting before adjournment; (c) Any question postponed to the present meeting. Following the purposes of the TAEA, it may be selected to follow and conclude unfinished business electronically.
- ☐ New Business: following any unfinished business, the chair asks, “Is there any new business?” Members can introduce or move to take from the table any matter that is on the table.

XIV. Operating Policies and Procedures

To maintain the important role of art in the education of children, Texas art educators must clearly understand their duties and obligations and must perpetuate the dignity and honor of the profession. To ensure that members of the Texas Art Education Association do establish and maintain their duties, obligations, dignity and honor with respect and equity for all, this TAEA Penalties for Rules & Policies Infractions is established.

Any TAEA member who by any act or omission causes a representative of or a participating organization to be in violation of published documents of TAEA may be subject to private or public reprimand. Situations involving repeated or severe infractions may result in loss of TAEA membership (see TAEA Constitution, Article, Section). Examples of TAEA published documents include, but are not limited to rules, guidelines, policies and procedures for art exhibitions and activities sponsored by TAEA: YAM, VASE, TASA/TASB, etc.

I. Penalties for Rules & Policies Infractions

A) Submitting a Grievance:

7. Any student, parent, director, TAEA member, school official or concerned party may submit a grievance.
8. Grievances must be submitted to the Division Chair, Executive Director, and/or the TAEA President.
9. The TAEA Executive Director shall immediately inform, in writing, the member(s) who is (are) the subject of the grievance. TAEA will not furnish a copy of the grievance to the accused. Any action taken would be as a result of an independent TAEA investigation performed by a President-appointed Executive Committee.
10. The Executive Committee Chair and the Executive Director shall investigate and report to the TAEA Executive Council during a called or electronic-conferenced meeting.

B) Jurisdictions:

1. The Executive Council shall have decision jurisdiction to determine the merit of a grievance and instruct the Executive Director to proceed with action deemed appropriate.
2. The TAEA Executive Board shall have appellate jurisdiction. Appeals of an Executive Council decision will be considered during a regular meeting of the Executive Board.
3. The TAEA Executive Board shall have final jurisdiction.
4. Cases with a decision recommending loss of membership shall be submitted directly to the Executive Board
5. The Office Manager has no jurisdiction authority in this process.

C) Penalties:

1. Private Reprimand: At the direction of the Executive Council and subject to the appeals process, a letter of reprimand shall be sent to the member only and a copy kept in a confidential file at the TAEA office in the custodial care of the Office Manager.
2. Public Reprimand: At the direction of the Executive Council and subject to the appeals process, a letter of reprimand shall be sent to the member, campus level administrator, district level superintendent, and for inclusion in the next STAR publication. A public reprimand may include a probationary period of up to three years and may include any reasonable conditions, which, if not fulfilled, may result in a more stringent penalty.

3. Loss of Membership: The Executive Council may choose to recommend loss of membership as a penalty for a period not to exceed three years.
